- An interest and desire to work with children
- An ability to communicate with adults, children and Management
- An ability to supervise and support educators

RECRUITMENT

When a Senior or Management position becomes available, the Management Committee will appoint a selection panel to conduct the selection process. The panel will consist of three people: two members of the Management Committee and the Centre Director for assistance.

Where the position is for the out-going Centre Director, an Educator's representative will be placed on the panel.

When a casual educator position becomes available, the Nominated Supervisor will advise the Management Committee of the requirement for additional educators. The Nominated Supervisor will then be responsible for the recruitment process, ensuring the Management Committee is provided with information regarding the candidate's qualifications, advertising strategies and recruitment decisions. An interview panel for the casual position will include the Nominated Supervisor and a senior educator. A member of the Management Committee may also join the panel if required.

When a recruitment decision has been made the Nominated Supervisor must inform the Management Committee and provide them with any further information regarding the successful applicant.

The panel will:

- Approve the job description and select criteria for the position
- Determine the method and placement of advertising and place the advertisement including notification of the Working with Children Check
- Ask applicants to consent to a screening
- Short-list the applicants
- Arrange interview questions, date and time
- Contact the applicants for an interview
- Conduct the interviews
- Arrange for the Working with Children Check on the preferred applicant
- Ensure that approval for selected educator has been granted under Working with Children Check
- Make a decision on a suitable applicant, which is put before the Management Committee for final approval
- Offer the position to the successful applicant and contact the unsuccessful applicants after the position has been accepted
- Set a date for the commencement of employment and orientation of the new person
- Prepare a letter of offer and contract in line with the Children's Services Award (2010)

ADVERTISEMENTS

Advertisements shall be placed in local and regional newspapers as well as relevant advertising websites such as Network of Community Activities.

Advertisements are to include:

- Job title
- Specific employment information, including hours of work and rate of pay
- Requirement for applicant to be willing to undergo Working with Children Check
- Closing date and postal address for applicants
- Contact name and number where the applicant can obtain more information
- Email address for applicant to forward relevant information

Applicants in writing should include:

- Contact telephone numbers
- Resume
- Minimum of (2) referees with at least one being a work reference

INTERVIEW

The selection panel will draw up suitable interview questions, which relate to all aspects of the position and ensure equal opportunity guidelines are followed. The panel will decide who will ask each question.

The panel will draw up a list of essential requirements for each answer.

No longer than 5 days after the closing date, the panel will meet to discuss the applications, develop a short-list and decide on the interview date and times.

An appropriate time frame will be allocated to each interview, with a short break between for discussion.

Each applicant will be given a copy of the job description and relevant child protection forms before the interview.

Only the preferred applicant will be required to return the paperwork to the panel.

Each applicant will be asked the same questions with their answers recorded.

The Management Committee are to discuss each applicant and their suitability for the position based on their answers, qualifications and experience, and the selection criteria drawn up by the panel.

Should the committee have difficulty in deciding between two applicants, a second interview for these applicants will be conducted with new questions.

The Management Committee will then make a decision on the applicant for the job according to the selection criteria. The preferred applicant's referees will be contacted to confirm applicant's suitability and checked with the NSW Working with Children Check before being offered a position within the service.

Should the applicant decline the position, the Management Committee will either make a second choice from the other applicants or if none are seen as suitable, re-advertise the position.

NOTIFICATION

Applicants will be given an approximate time frame as to when they will be contacted regarding their success for the position.

A person on the selection panel will notify the successful applicant and negotiate a starting date.

After the appointment has been made and accepted the other applicants will be notified that the position has been filled

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

All educator positions will be advertised according to the Equal Opportunities Act.

No one will be discriminated against on the basis of his or her cultural background, religion, sex, disability, marital status or income.

All applicants and referees will be asked the same questions.

Selection will be based only on suitability for the position and based on the selection criteria, which have been drawn up by the panel. The criteria will cover issues such as qualifications and experience, appropriate knowledge to meet the children's needs, good communication skills, demonstration in being fit and proper person for the job, including Working with Children Check and appropriate answers to the interview questions.
